

CAST

Street Rats Scott Jacoby, Darel Glaser, Todd Jones

Steve Arlen Matt Stanton

Kathleen Stanton Joan Diener

Edward Quinn Robert Weede

Petey Boyle Tommy Rall

Helen Gallagher Bessie Legg

Maria Haggerty Dolores Wilson

Paul Ukena John "Black Jack" Haggerty

James "Palsy" Murphy Edwin Steffe William Griffis

Father Coyne

Senator Thomas Walsh Jay Stuart

Charles Rule Mortyeen O'Brien Peter Mulligan John Ferrante

Elliott Savage Father Maloney

Cruelty Man Taylor Reed

Mrs. Teresa Tuohy Fran Stevens

Fiona Quigley Elaine Cancilla

Jack O'Banion Jack Trussel

Mrs. O'Brien Dora Rinehart

Aloysius "Wishy" Doyle Bill Dance

Mutton Egan Ronnie Douglas

opes were high for Cry For Us All. After all, it was adapted from a 1965 hit off-Broadway play, Hogan's Goat, by William Alfred, which played a healthy run of 607 performances at the Theater at St. Clement's Church, and featured a cast of actors that would soon be on their way to stardom -Faye Dunaway, Ralph Waite, Cliff Gorman, and Conrad Bain. Even the replacements would go on to great acclaim - Barnard Hughes and Richard Mulligan. More importantly, it was brought to you by the same composer and director of the smash hit, Man Of La Mancha - Mitch Leigh and Albert Marre - and it featured that show's leading lady. Joan Diener. Alfred did the book (along with Marre), and provided the lyrics along with Phyllis Robinson. But the out-of-town tryout was troubled and the show underwent many changes, including the beefing up of Miss Diener's role at the expense of other actors. One role, played by Margot Moser, and which,

The COLONIAL THEATRE

OWNED AND OPERATED BY
JUJAMCYN THEATRES — SAMUEL H. SCHWARTZ

MITCH LEIGH

association with

C GERALD COLDSMITH

JOAN DIENER

ROBERT WEEDE

And introducing

STEVE ARLEN

. ALBERT MARRE'S productioned

WHO TO LOVE

A New Musical

MITCH LEIGH

WILLIAM ALFRED and ALBERT MARRE

WILLIAM ALFRED and PHYLLIS ROBINSON

alen starring TOMMY RALL MARGOT MOSER

DOLORES WILSON

EDWIN STEFFE

WILLIAM GRIFFIS

1-1-2-1 john citic harr

daine ancilla huddle ten

HELEN GALLAGHER

Chocography by TOOD BOLENDER

Souting and Lighting to Howard BAL Musical Director HERBERT GROSSMAN

Costumes by ROBERT FLETCHER

Orchestrations by CARLYLE HALL f Musle Makers, Inc. Mose Supervision SAM POTTLE

ALBERT MARRE

NOTE

The events in WHO TO LOVE take place between Thursday, April 28 and Sunday, May 1, 1890.

The principal locale is the Court Cafe on the corner of Court Street and Fifth Place, Brooklyn: the street outside, the bar and backroom of the cafe, and the Haggerty parlor which adjoins it. The action also moves to the street outside Ag Hogan's flat, to the Printer's Church in Brooklyn, and to a Comey Island Steamer bound for Seagate.

according to Ken Mandelbaum in his book Not Since Carrie, was crucial to the action of the show, was eliminated in total, and according to Mandelbaum, Diener's part got bigger and bigger as material was taken away from cast members Helen Gallagher, Tommy Rall, and Dolores Wilson. There was even a title change to Who To Love that didn't last long and neither did the show.

Doing the show was composer Mitch Leigh's idea (he was also the show's producer along with C. Gerald Goldsmith). At first, Leigh thought he would make a film of the play, but after reading it several times, thought the material would really lend itself to musicalization. Albert Marre, Leigh's collaborator on La Mancha, agreed, and Alfred agreed to write the book (with Marre) and lyrics (with Phyllis Robinson, an advertising copywriter whose first and only Broadway show this was).

Cry For Us All opened on April 8, 1970 at the Broadhurst Theater where it played eighteen previews, opened to non-money reviews, and closed after nine Mancha had been like a breath of ater. Growing up, one of my allslightly longer running flops. eke out a run of a year, based on the star power of Katherine the tired businessman of 1970 the show was nominated for two Tony Awards – one for best actor (also from the La Mancha team).

But the fact is, listening to the tuneful and sometimes operatic MEETING ROBERT WEEDE score holds many pleasures. especially as delivered by the It was back in either late 1965 or brilliant Robert Weede, Miss early 1966. I was in my first year Diener, and Steve Arlen, along of college, taking Theater Arts. with Miss Gallagher, Mr. Rall, All I wanted back then was to be only two hit musicals that season first, because I'm such a fan of - Applause and Purlie. Maybe a the composer, and second serious musical melodrama set in because putting out a CD with 1890 Brooklyn about the trials Robert Weede on it is more and tribulations of some power- meaningful to me than you can have to because I'm going to tell was interested in. Despite that, you why. I do hope you'll indulge a little personal remembrance of Mr. Weede, because meeting in a musical (Robert Weede) and him changed my life and his genone for set designer Howard Bay erosity and kindness informed the kind of person that I've always tried to be.

Buck White, La Strada, and two filled with his signature rhythms Coco, which at least managed to opportunities to dig in to his tune- voice wash over me. ful and soaring melodies.

Leigh's score to Man Of La wanted was to do musical the- stage door of any show because performances. But that season fresh air on Broadway (and hear- time favorite cast albums was the was littered with musicals that ing it every time the show is three LP set of The Most Happy shuttered quickly, including Look revived, it's still like a breath of Fella, starring Robert Weede. I To The Lillies, Georgy, Gantry, fresh air), and Cry For Us All is played it to death, wore out several copies, and regularly sat with and meter changes and it affords the lights off, letting that wonder-Jimmy and Minnie's Boys, and Weede, Diener, and Arlen, meaty ful score and Weede's beautiful

And so, when I saw that a Hepburn. There were actually Doing this CD is a special treat - theater-in-the-round in San Bernadino was doing the show and, more importantly, that two of its original stars would be recreating their Broadway roles - Mr. Weede and Art Lund – I bought a hungry Irishmen just wasn't what possibly imagine. And you don't ticket for the closing Sunday matinee. I drove out there alone (a really long drive in those days) and saw the show. Simply put, it was a superb production (directed by Ernie Sarracino), Art Lund and the large cast were fantastic. and Robert Weede - well, he gave the greatest performance I'd ever seen (okay, I was only seventeen, but to this day it's still the greatest performance I've ever seen). I went backstage, which was a makeshift tent-like area, and I asked if I could please meet Mr. Weede. It wasn't and a large supporting cast. a good actor and what I really like today, where kids flock to the that's become the thing to do - to me about my own work. I take this CD is more than a pleasure like a game - no, I was the only the time to listen to them, and try it's a tribute to one of the finest one back there. They asked me to emulate his kindness and supto wait, and a moment later Mr. port and warmth. He's someone I Weede appeared, with that big, will always remember with great endearing smile of his. I told him affection - in those amazing that I thought his performance moments backstage he taught was magnificent and how much it me so much about humility and had meant to me. He was very humble and thanked me for my words. He asked what I wanted to do and I told him I wanted to be an actor and he was just so kind and so supportive it actually took me aback.

He then asked me if I wanted to stay and see their final evening performance. I said, of course, ves, and he arranged a complimentary ticket for me - and then invited me to come backstage after and attend the cast party. The evening performance was even better, and, after the show, I went backstage and told them Mr. Weede had invited me to attend the party. He found me, introduced me to the other cast members and made sure I didn't feel awkward about being there. I've never forgotten it - that kindness, that wonderful gentle man and I remember it whenever anyone e-mails me or comes up kindness, and there's not a day that goes by when I'm not grateful for having met him. So, doing singing actors I've ever seen, and one of the nicest human beings I've ever met.

— Bruce Kimmel

ORIGINAL LP CREDITS

RECORD PRODUCERS MITCH LEIGH

ALBERT MARRE

ENOCH LIGHT

ASSISTANT PRODUCER JEFF HEST

RECORDING PHILE

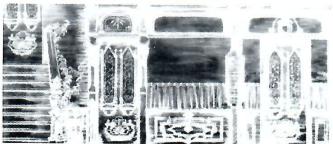

PHIL RAMONE

MIX

STEVE FRIEDMAN

MASTERING

DAVE CRAWFORD

Produced for CD release by Bruce Kimmel

Mastered by James Nelson at Digital Outland. Special thanks to Cason Murphy, David Kirshenbaum.

Package Design by Doug Haverty for Art & Soul Design

The Original Broadway Cast Recording

or Us All"

- <sup>1</sup> Overture
- <sup>2</sup> The End Of My Race ~ Stanton<sup>3</sup> How Are You, Since? ~ Kathleen and Company
- 4 The Mayor's Chair ~ Quinn
- 5 Verandah Waltz ~ Kathleen
- <sup>6</sup> The Wages Of Sin ~ Street Rats
- <sup>7</sup> Who To Love If Not A Stranger ~ Kathleen
- 8 Search Your Heart ~ Stanton9 Cry For Us All ~ Petey and Company
- 10 Swing Your Bag ~ Bessie
- 11 That Slavery Is Love ~ Kathleen12 The Cruelty Man ~ Street Rats
- 13 Aggie, Oh Aggie ~ Quinn
- The Leg Of The Duck ~ Petey
   This Cornucopian Land ~ Stanton and Company
- 16 Finale ~ Kathleen, Stanton, and Company

Music by Mitch Leigh Lyrics by William Alfred and Phyllis Robinson

1970 The Total Sound, Inc. All rights reserved. Unauthorized duplication is a violation of applicable laws. Printed in the U.S.A. by Kritzerland 4804 Laurel Canyon Blvd. • #743 Valley Village, CA • 91607-3717 www.kritzerland.com

LIMITED EDITION

This CD is limited to 1000 copies